Welcome

Plan your Adventure Today and Experience Harrisonburg, Virginia

Welcome to Harrisonburg, located in the heart of the Shenandoah Valley, offering trendy, locally-owned restaurants, museums, and art venues that connect our historic downtown district to James Madison University, creating one of Virginia's first designated Arts & Cultural District. This 10-block walk passes the Virginia Quilt Museum, Hardesty-Higgins House Visitor Center, Explore More Discovery Museum, Oasis Art Gallery, and Court Square a gathering place in Downtown for music, outdoor movies and events throughout the year.

Harrisonburg offers an array of lodging choices from hotels to historic homes turned into a contemporary bed & breakfasts.

Call our Travel Specialists Mon-Sun 9am-5pm at 540.432.8935 for information and reservation assistance.

Harrisonburg offers a variety of international restaurants including Thai, Indian, Ethiopian, Greek, Italian, Caribbean, and Mexican. Taste Virginia wines at Cave Ridge Vineyards ~ Wine on Water or visit CrossKeys and Bluestone Vineyards just minutes from the city limits.

Who doesn't like to shop? Harrisonburg offers unique shopping for the entire family. Visit the Harrisonburg Farmers Market, You Made It Pottery, All Things Virginia, Laughing Dog Productions, Ten Thousand Villages, SoLace Studios, and more.

Harrisonburg's festivals and events are held throughout the year. In June the Court & Market Days Festival highlights Harrisonburg's unique history by bringing together the contemporary culture of our local farmers market and the 1850s Harrisonburg recreated. The Harrisonburg International Festival is a free day of family fun that celebrates the many cultures that make up our community. Festival features include international foods, music, and dance, activities for all ages, a multi-language area, and a World Bazaar featuring traditional folk art. Come Celebrate with us.

Outdoor adventure in and around Harrisonburg is easy to find. Bike the Rocktown Trails, try a round of golf at Heritage Oaks and explore the trails at the Edith J. Carrier Arboretum and Botanical Gardens. Join anglers from across the Mid-Atlantic and let the experts at Mossy Creek Fly Fishing help plan your fishing trip. Hunt and fish in the George Washington/Jefferson National Forest, or enjoy camping and horseback riding in the Shenandoah National Park, both minutes away from the city core. Take your exploration underground at Grand Caverns, Shenandoah or Luray Caverns, the area's largest cavern. Harrisonburg is ranked by Backpacker Magazine as a top spot for families to beat "nature deficit disorder."

Just minutes from Harrisonburg you'll find

Massanutten Four Season Resort, a sprawling 6,000-acre resort featuring two recreation centers, an indoor/outdoor water park, snow sports, new spa, horseback riding, fishing, and more.

Plan your adventure and experience Harrisonburg, Virginia!
