Celebrate and Commemorate

Celebrate Shenandoah National Park 75th Anniversary

Anniversaries and Commemorations allow our community & visitors to see places in a unique way. In 2011, the Shenandoah National Park celebrates the 75th Anniversary with hopes of inspiring the public to value Shenandoah's Blue Ridge Mountains and revisit the unique communities surrounding the Park. Many visitors have their National Park stories, but for the Shenandoah National Park and the Skyline Drive, the journey becomes the destination. Harrisonburg/Rockingham Gateway is Swift Run Gap at MM 65.5. Learn more at www.celebrateshenandoah.org.

Commemorate the 150th Anniversary of the American Civil War

Harrisonburg is located in the Shenandoah Valley Battlefields National Historic District with many opportunities for visitors to gain a broader understanding of the Civil War. In addition to the Civil War Orientation Center located in the Hardesty-Higgins House, Harrisonburg and Rockingham County are home to 26 Civil War Sites, complete with 6 the Civil War Trails markers located in historic downtown Harrisonburg. Visit www.virginiacivilwar.org for more information on Virginia's role during the American Civil War. For sites in the Shenandoah Valley visit www.shenandoahatwar.org.
